

How Board members should behave

Board members should:

Follow the rules written in UCI's Memorandum and Articles of Association.

Memorandum and Articles of Association are the rules that say how UCI should run.

Do what is best for UCI.

Go to Board meetings.

Read the information they are given before Board meetings.

Know what activities UCI are doing.

Join in when people are talking in Board meetings.

Join in when you are asked to vote,

Vote is when you put your hand up in a meeting to show that you agree with something.

Treat other people in a kind and fair way.

Board members should not:

Break the law

Tell other people private things about UCI staff or volunteers.

Make money from UCI (unless they have been told it is ok to do that).

Be rude to staff, volunteers or other Board members.
